

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160. I believe a pay station such as XM radio has the right to offer whatever programming it wishes to attract an audience and compete against other radio program broadcasts which are supposed to be free, but are so full of commercials that I choose not to listen to them, but instead will listen to pay radio. It is worth it to me to pay for the superior programming and no commercials of XM radio,